

What is a Grievance?

Black's Law dictionary defines a grievance as "a complaint due to injury, injustice, or wrong". In politics, grievances have been used in many historical documents, including the Magna Carta and the U.S. Declaration of Independence.

Likewise, the complaints included here reveal how the State of Illinois has failed to represent and protect its citizens. These grievances substantiate the legitimacy of our declaration of independence from this failing government.

Demand a new government without uprooting your life and community. Join us at New Illinois.